

Alberta Brown began her music education with Dr. Mary Byrne at the Victoria Conservatory of Music. She made her soloist debut at fourteen with the Sidney Classical Orchestra. In 2006, she won the annual Hart House Orchestra Concerto Competition and recently won first place in the Senior Woodwind division and the President's Trophy at the Toronto Kiwanis Music Festival. She was accepted on scholarship to study at Domaine Forget and the Orford Music Academy in Quebec and the Hot Springs Music Festival in Arkansas. Alberta is enrolled in the Performance Programme in the Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto, studying with flutist Susan Hoepfner.
