

Daniel Cabena, countertenor, is a doctoral student at l'Université de Montréal under the tutelage of Mark Pedrotti. Daniel completed an Honours Bachelor of Music degree at Wilfrid Laurier University, where he studied voice with Daniel Lichti, and was awarded the Alumni Gold Medal in Music upon graduating. He has sung as a soloist under Ronald Beckett, Lawrence Beckwith, Boris Brott, Richard Cunningham, Noel Edison, David Fallis, Gary Kulesha, Marta McCarthy, Gerald Neufeld and Hervé Niquet. Daniel is grateful to the Canadian Aldeburgh Foundation and the Canada Council for the Arts for their help in funding his recent projects in Europe.
